"Subject to the constitution, where a company issues shares which rank equally to existing shares as to voting or distribution rights, those shares shall first be offered to the holders of existing shares in a manner which would, if the offer were accepted, maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders".

Clause 13(G) of the Constitution of the Company states that:

"Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, all new shares or other convertible Securities shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of General Meetings in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or Securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or Securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or Securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or Securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new share or Security which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or Securities bear to shares or Securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Constitution."

In order for the Board to issue any new YHB Shares or other convertible securities without any pre-emptive rights, such pre-emptive rights must be waived. By approving the resolution in relation to the Proposed ESS2023 which entails the allotment and issuance of new YHB Shares, the shareholders of the Company are waiving their pre-emptive rights pursuant to Section 85(1) of the Companies Act 2016 which must be read together with Clause 13(G) of the Constitution to first be offered the YHB Shares which, upon waiving the same, will result in a dilution to their shareholding percentage in the Company.
