2. There are no founder, management or deferred shares in the Company.
3. A Director is not required to hold any qualification share in the Company.
4. There is only one class of shares in the Company, namely ordinary shares of RM0.20 each, all of which rank pari passu with one another.

14.2. Articles of Association

1. The provisions in the Articles of Association of the Company in respect of the arrangement for transfer of shares of the Company and restriction on their free transferability are as follows:-

| 22 | The transfer of any securities or class of securities of the Company which have been deposited with the Central Depository, shall be by way of book entry by the Central Depository in accordance with the Rules and, notwithstanding sections 103 and 104 of the Act, but subject to subsection 107C(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from compliance with subsection 107C(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of such securities.   | Transfers                  |
| 23 | The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine not exceeding in the whole, thirty (30) days in any year. Eighteen (18) market days' notice, or such other period as may from time to time be specified by KLSE governing the Register concerned, of intention to close the Register shall be published in a daily newspaper circulating in Malaysia and shall also be given to KLSE. The said notice shall state the period and purpose or purposes for which the Register is being closed. Notice in accordance with the Rules shall be given to the Central Depository to prepare the appropriate Record of Depositors. | Suspension of registration |
| 24 | Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the allottee thereof in favour of some other person.  | Renunciation               |

2. The provisions in the Company's Articles of Association dealing with the voting and borrowing powers of the Directors are as follows:-

- |     |   |  |
|-----|---|--|
| 91  | The business of the Company shall be managed by Directors who may pay all expenses incurred in promoting and registering the Company, and exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by these Articles required to be exercised by the Company in general meeting, subject nevertheless, to any of these Articles, to the provisions of the Act, and to such resolutions, not being inconsistent with these Articles or the provisions of the Act as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting but no resolution made by the Company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Directors which would have been valid if such resolution had not been made. | Business of Company to be managed by Directors |
| 92. | The Directors shall not without the prior approval of the Company in general meeting :-   | Limitation on Directors Powers                 |
|     | (a) carry into effect any proposal or execute any transaction for the acquisition of any undertaking or property of a substantial value, or the disposal of a substantial portion of or a controlling interest in the Company's main undertaking or property;   |  |
|     | (b) exercise any power of the Company to issue shares unless otherwise permitted under the Act;   |  |

- (c) subject to Sections 132E and 132F of the Act, enter into any arrangement or transaction with a Director of the Company or its holding company or with a person connected with such a Director, to acquire from or dispose to such a Director or person, any non-cash assets of the requisite value.
- 93 (1) The Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge its undertaking, property and uncalled capital, or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or any related company as may be thought fit.
- (2) The Directors shall not borrow any money or mortgage or charge any of the Company's or the subsidiaries' undertaking, property or any uncalled capital, or to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of an unrelated third party.
- 100 Subject always to Sections 131, 132E, 132F and 132G of the Act, a Director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of Auditor) in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as the Directors may determine and no Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise nor shall any such contract, or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director is in any way interested, be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relationship thereby established but the interest must be disclosed by him at the meeting of the Directors at which the contract or arrangement is determined, if the interest then exists or in any other case at the first meeting of the Directors after the acquisition of the interest.
104. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business of the Directors shall be two (2) and a meeting of the Director for the time being at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the powers, authorities and discretion by or under these Articles vested in or exercisable by the Directors generally. For the purpose of determining whether the quorum for the transaction of the business of the Directors exists: -
- (a) in the case of a resolution agreed by Directors in telephonic communications, all such Directors shall be counted in the quorum; and
- (b) in the case of a meeting of Directors, in addition to the Directors present at the meeting, any Director in telephonic communication with such meeting shall be counted in the quorum.
109. Every Director shall comply with the provisions of Sections 131 and 135 of the Act in connection with the disclosure of his shareholding and interests in the Company and his interest in any contract or proposed contract with the Company and in connection with the disclosure, every Director shall state the fact and the nature, character and extent of any office or possession of any property whereby whether directly or indirectly, duties or interests might be created in conflict with his duty or interest as a Director of the Company.
113. A Director of the Company may be or become a Director or other officer of or otherwise interested in any corporation promoted by the Company or in which the Company may be interested as shareholder or otherwise or any corporation which is directly and indirectly interested in the Company as shareholder or otherwise and no such Director shall be accountable to the Company for a remuneration or other benefit received by him as a Director or officer of, or from his interest in, such corporation unless the Company otherwise directs at the time of his appointment. The Directors may exercise the voting power conferred by the shares or other interest in any such other corporation held or owned by the Company, or exercisable by them as Directors of such other corporation, in such manner and in all respects as they think fit (including the exercise thereof in favour of any resolution appointing themselves or any of the Directors or other officers of such corporation), and any Director may vote in favour of the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid, notwithstanding that he may be or is about to be appointed a Director or other officer of such corporation and as such is or may become interested in the exercise of such voting rights in manner aforesaid.

118. The Directors may establish any committees, local boards or agencies comprising two (2) or more persons for managing any other affairs of the Company either in Malaysia or elsewhere, and may lay down, vary or annul such rules and regulations as they may think fit for the conduct of the business thereof, and may appoint any person or persons to be the member or members of any such committee or local board or agency and may fix their remuneration and may delegate to any such committee or local board or agency any of the powers, authorities and discretion vested in the Directors, with power to sub-delegate, and may authorise the member or members of any such committee or local board or agency or any of them, to fill any vacancies therein, and to act notwithstanding vacancies, and any such appointment or delegation may be made upon such terms and subject to such conditions as the Director may think fit, and the Directors may remove any person so appointed, and may annul or vary any such delegation, but no persons dealing in good faith and without notice of any such annulment or variation shall be affected thereby. The regulations herein contained for the proceedings of Directors shall so far as not altered by any regulations made by the Directors apply also to the meetings and proceedings of any committee.
119. Subject to any rules and regulations made pursuant to Article 118, a committee may meet and adjourn as it thinks proper and questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present (if more than one (1)) and in the case of any equality of votes, the Chairman shall not have a second or casting vote.

3. The provision in the Articles of Association dealing with the changes in capital and variations of class rights which is not more stringent than that required by law, are as follows:-

3. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares and subject to the provisions of these Articles and the Act and to the provisions of any resolution of the Company, shares in the Company may be issued by the Directors, who may allot, or otherwise dispose of such shares to such persons, on such terms and conditions, with such preferred, deferred or other special rights, and subject to such restrictions, whether with regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, and at such times as the Directors may determine but the Directors in making any issue of shares shall comply with the following conditions :-
- (a) no shares shall be issued at a discount except in compliance with the provisions of Section 59 of the Act;
- (b) in the case of shares offered to the public for subscription, the amount payable on application on each share shall not be less than five per cent (5%) of the nominal amount of the share;

Allotment of

- (c) in the case of shares of any class, other than ordinary shares, no special rights shall be attached until the same have been expressed in these Articles and in the resolution creating the same;
  - (d) no offer, issue, allotment or grant of shares or options over shares or rights to subscribe for shares or to convert any securities into shares shall be made which will have the effect of transferring a controlling interest in the Company to any person, company or syndicate without the prior approval of the Members of the Company in general meetings;
  - (e) every issue of shares or options to employees and/or Directors of the Company shall be approved by the Members in general meeting and no Director shall participate in such issues of shares unless: -
    - (i) the Members in general meeting have approved of the specific allotment to be made to such Director; and
    - (ii) he holds office in the Company in an executive capacity PROVIDED ALWAYS that a Director not holding office in an executive capacity may so participate in any issue of shares pursuant to a public issue or public offer or special issue, such participation to be approved by the relevant authorities.
4. Subject to the Act, any preference shares may with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of shareholders in general meeting, be issued on the terms that they are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed but the total nominal value of the issued preference shares shall not exceed the total nominal value of the issued ordinary shares at any time and the Company shall not issue preference shares ranking in priority above preference shares already issued, but may issue preference shares ranking equally therewith. Preference shareholders shall have the same rights as ordinary shareholders as regards receiving notices, reports and balance sheets and attending general meetings of the Company. Preference shareholders shall have the right to vote in each of the following circumstances and in no others :
- (i) when the dividend or part of the dividend on the share is in arrears for more than 6 months;
  - (ii) on a proposal to reduce the Company's share capital;
  - (iii) on a proposal for the disposal of the whole of the Company's share capital;
  - (iv) on a proposal that affects the rights and privileges attached to the preference share; and
  - (v) on a proposal to wind up or during the winding up of the Company
5. Notwithstanding Article 6 hereof, the repayment of preference share capital other than redeemable preference shares, or any alteration of preference shareholder's rights shall only be made pursuant to a special resolution of the preference shareholders concerned PROVIDED ALWAYS that where the necessary majority for such a special resolution is not obtained at the meeting, consent in writing obtained from the holders of three-fourths of the preference shares concerned within two (2) months of the meeting, shall be as valid and effectual as a special resolution carried at the meeting.
6. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting, the provisions of these Articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy, one-third of the issued shares of the class and that any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll. To every such special resolution, the provisions of Section 152 of the Act shall with such adaptations as are necessary, apply.

| 6.  | The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking as regards participation in the profits or assets of the Company in some or in all respects pari passu therewith.   | Ranking of class rights                          |
| 7.  | The Company may exercise the powers of paying commission conferred by the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by the Act, and the rate of the commission shall not exceed the rate of ten per cent (10%) of the price at which the shares in respect whereof the same is paid are issued or an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of that price (as the case may be). Such commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in the other. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful. | Commission on subscription of shares             |
| 8.  | Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings, or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a long period, the Company may pay interest on so much share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in Section 69 of the Act and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of the plant construction of the works or buildings or the provision.  | Interest on share capital during construction    |
| 9.  | Except as required by law and provided under the Rules, no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or be compelled in any way to recognize (even with notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any unit of share or (except only as by these Articles, the Rules or by law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any shares, except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.   | Trusts not to be recognised                      |
| 40. | The Company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting convert any paid up shares into stock or reconvert any stock into paid up shares of any denomination.  | Conversion by ordinary resolution                |
| 44. | The Company may from time to time, whether all the shares for the time being authorised shall have been issued or all the shares for the time being issued shall have been fully paid up or not, by ordinary resolution increase its share capital by the creation and issue of new shares, such new capital to be of such amount to be divided into shares of such respective amounts and to carry such rights or to be subject to such conditions or restrictions in regard to dividend, return of capital or otherwise as the Company by the resolution authorising such increase directs.   | Power to increase capital                        |
| 45. | Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in general meeting, any new ordinary shares for the time being unissued and not allotted and any new shares from time to time to be created shall, before they are issued, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of            | Offer of unissued original shares and new shares | that time, or on the receipt of any intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to any offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors be conveniently offered under this Article.

| 46. | Notwithstanding Article 45 above, but subject always to Section 132D of the Act (where there is still in effect a resolution approving the issuance of shares by the Company), the Company may waive the requirement of convening extraordinary general meetings to obtain shareholders' approval for further issues of shares (other than bonus or rights issues) where the aggregate issues of which in any one financial year (other than by way of bonus or rights issue) do not exceed ten percent (10%) of the issued capital.  | Waiver of convening extraordinary general meeting |
| 47. | Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as part of the original share capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the original share capital.  | New shares to rank with original shares           |
| 48. | The Company may by ordinary resolution :-(a) increase the share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount as the resolution shall prescribe;(b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;(c) divide its share capital or any part thereof into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the Memorandum of Association by subdivision of its existing shares or any of them subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act and so that as between the resulting shares, one or more of such shares may, by the resolution by which such sub-division is effected, be given any preference or advantage as regards dividend, return of capital, voting or otherwise over the others or any other of such shares; and(d) cancel shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so canceled. | Power to alter capital                            |
| 49. | Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the requirements of KLSE and such other relevant law, regulation or guideline, the Company is allowed and shall have power, to the fullest extent permitted, to purchase its own shares or give financial assistance to any person for the purpose of acquiring shares in the Company. Any shares in the Company so purchased by the Company shall be dealt with as provided by the Act, the requirements of KLSE and any other relevant authority.   | Share buy-back                                    |
| 50. | The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve fund or any share premium account in any manner and with, and subject to, any authorization, and consent required by law.  | Power to reduce capital                           |
| 4.  | The provision in the Articles of Association dealing with the remuneration of Directors are as follows:-  |   |
| 88. | The Directors shall be paid by way of fees for their services, such fixed sum (if any) as shall from time to time be determined by the Company in general meeting and such fees shall be divided among the Directors in such proportions and manner as the Directors may determine. PROVIDED ALWAYS that :-   | Directors remuneration                            |

In the case of an Executive Director, such fee may be either in addition to or in substitution for his share in the fee from time to time provided for the Directors.</li> </ul> | Reimbursement of expenses                     |
| 101. | Any Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director, provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a Director or his firm to act as auditor of the Company and provided further that such shall be at normal commercial terms.   | Director may act in his professional capacity |
| 114. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) Each Director shall have power from time to time to nominate any person (not being a Director) to act as his alternate Director and at his discretion remove such alternate Director, but the appointment of such alternate Director shall not take effect until approved by a majority of the other Directors and PROVIDED ALWAYS that any fee paid by the Company to an alternate Director shall be deducted from that Director's remuneration.</li> <li>(2) An alternate Director shall (except as regards the power to appoint an alternate Director and remuneration) be subject in all respects to the terms and conditions existing with reference to the other Directors, and shall be entitled to receive notices of all meetings of the Directors and to attend, speak and vote at any such meeting at which his appointor is not present.</li> <li>(3) Any appointment or removal of an alternate Director may be made by cable, telegram or radiogram, telex or in any other manner approved by the Directors. Any cable, telegram or radiogram shall be confirmed as soon as possible by letter, but may be acted upon by the Company in the meanwhile.</li> </ul>                             | Alternate Directors                           |

- (4) If a Director making any such appointment as aforesaid shall cease to be a Director (otherwise than by reason of vacating his office at a meeting of the Company at which he is re-elected), the person appointed by him shall thereupon cease to have any power or authority to act as an alternate Director.
- (5) A Director shall not be liable for the acts and defaults of any alternate Director appointed by him.
- (6) An alternate Director shall not be taken into account in reckoning the minimum or maximum number of Directors allowed for the time being but he shall be counted for the purpose of reckoning whether a quorum is present at any meeting of the Directors attended by him at which he is entitled to vote.

116.	The remuneration of a Director holding an executive office pursuant to these Articles shall, subject to Article 88, be fixed by the Directors and may be by way of salary or commission or participation in profits or otherwise or by any or all of these modes but shall not include a commission on or percentage of turnover. An applicant should state his CDS Account number in the space provided in the Application Form if he presently has such an account. Where an applicant does not presently have a CDS Account, he should state in the Application Form his preferred ADA Code. A list of the ADA Codes is set out in the section "List of Authorised Depository Agents" of this Prospectus. Where an applicant already has a CDS Account, he should not complete the preferred ADA Code.

If a successful applicant fails to state either his CDS Account number or his preferred ADA code, the directors of the Company or the Placement Agent may exercise their discretion to instruct the Issuing House to insert a preferred ADA Code on the Application Form and further instruct MCD to open a CDS Account on the applicant's behalf with the specified ADA and credit the Shares allotted to the applicant into the applicant's CDS Account.

Where an applicant already has a CDS account, his completion of the Application Form includes his authority for MCD to disclose information pertaining to the CDS account to the Issuing House/Company.

Failure to comply with these specific instructions or any inaccuracy in the CDS Account number or the preferred ADA Code may result in the application being rejected. The directors of the Company or the Placement Agent reserve the right to reject any incomplete or inaccurate application.

15.6. Notice of Allotment

Shares allotted to all successful applicants will be credited to their respective CDS Accounts. A notice of allotment will be despatched by ordinary post to the successful applicants at their addresses shown in the Application Form where the applicants do not presently have a CDS account or to the applicant's address last maintained with MCD where the applicants have existing CDS accounts at the applicants' own risk within 30 days after the final ballot of the application. This is the only acknowledgment of acceptance of the application.

15.7. Formalising of CDS Accounts

Successful applicants whose CDS Accounts have been opened by MCD at their preferred ADA are required to formally open their accounts by submitting to the ADA the necessary documents and the account opening fee. No transaction of Shares credited to the account can be effected until the account has been formally opened.
