While the final effects of the Covid-19 pandemic are difficult to assess at this stage, it is possible that it will have substantial negative effect on the Malaysian and global economy. Any negative effect on the economies and markets where we operate in may decrease the demand for our products and have a material adverse effect on our Group;

All other information in the Prospectus remains unchanged. The Company is of the view that the errors are not material and should not affect the investment decision of investors.

This announcement is dated 8 September 2021.
