On 27 January 2023, TSA Industries has made payment of RM150,000 as costs to the Sixth Defendant.

Based on advice from the legal counsel, the prospects of success of the said appeal as it stands are fair to reasonable.

On 16 January 2024, the Judge directed TSA Industries to file an application in the Bankruptcy Court for leave to commence an action against the 2nd Defendant in the High Court as he is an undischarged bankrupt. TSA Industries' originating summons application put on hold pending its leave application in the Bankruptcy Court.

The increase was mainly due to slight increase in market demand for products in Malaysia and Singapore, after the dip in the previous financial quarter caused by softer demand during the festive seasons. As a result, the Group reported profit before tax and profit after tax of RM5.8 million and RM4.2 million respectively for the current financial quarter, an increased by RM2.6 million and RM2.2 million respectively.

B11. Material litigations (continued)

Further, 8 garnishee applications were filed with the Court to recover the judgment sum owed to TSA Industries by the First to Fifth Defendants. However, 4 of the garnishee applications filed with the Court which involved the Second Defendant were withdrawn as the Second Defendant was adjudged bankrupt on 13 December 2017. Further, 2 of the garnishee applications filed with the Court were withdrawn as the relevant defendants' bank accounts were closed. TSA Industries has recovered an aggregate sum of RM22,405.84 from 2 of the garnishee applications filed with the Court.

On 28 November 2023, an originating summons was filed by TSA Industries, against the Second Defendant, Fourth Defendant and 4 of the banks where they maintained accounts with for, amongst others, a declaratory order that monies held in the accounts bearing the name of the Second Defendant either solely and/or jointly at the 4 defendant banks shall not be vested with the Director General of Insolvency by virtue of the illegality of the monies, and recovery of the monies held by the Director General of Insolvency due to the bankruptcy status of the Second Defendant.

On 16 January 2024, the Judge directed TSA Industries to file an application in the Bankruptcy Court for leave to commence an action against the 2nd Defendant in the High Court as he is an undischarged bankrupt. On 25 March 2024, the Court gave direction that all Defendants to file their Affidavit in Reply on or before 8 April 2024 while TSA Industries to file Affidavit in Reply on or before 22 April 2024. On 27 May 2024, the Court has allowed TSA Industries' application for the Director General of Insolvency to return TSA Industries' money in Teoh Nam Hooi and Jennifer Yen's bank accounts to TSA Industries. To date, TSA Industries has recovered a total sum of RM3,192,221.67 from defendants' bank accounts pursuant to the court order. The amount will be recorded in third quarter ended 30 September 2024.

TSA Industries ("Plaintiff") -v- The Owners and/or Other Persons Interested in the Ship or Vessel "MSR No 1" (IMO NO.: 9141742) of Port of Panama ("Vessel") ("Defendant")

TSA Industries purchased one set of reconditioned annealing furnace from Hongkong Chengxin International Development Co. Limited ("Seller") at a price of USD1,127,760.50. On 13 September 2022, 23 packages of cargo containing pieces of the annealing furnace (collectively, "Cargo") were shipped on board the Vessel from Shanghai to Port Klang. While on voyage from Shanghai to Port Klang, the Vessel encountered turbulent weather conditions and 8 packages fell overboard into the sea while 15 packages remained on board with varied degree of damages of the packages. The Vessel arrived at Port Klang with the damaged packages.

On 3 October 2022, the Court issued the Writ in rem and a Warrant of Arrest for the Vessel. The arrest was effected on 4 October 2022 by the Sheriff of the Court at the territorial waters of Malaysia at Port Klang. The arrest was on the basis that, as the carrier and bailee of the Cargo, the Defendant had failed to ensure that the Cargo is received by TSA Industries in a good, workable condition and was fit for its function and purpose.

The solicitors acting for TSA Industries had, on 7 November 2022, filed the statement of claim. TSA Industries is claiming, amongst others, the sum of USD1,127,760.50, interest and legal and other costs amounting to RM400,000.

On 31 January 2023, the Vessel was released from arrest after security for the claim amounting to USD1,240,536.55 (being the value of the cargo lost and costs of RM400,000.00) was paid into Court. On 3 April 2023, the Admiralty Judge dismissed the Defendant's application to strike out the claim and to set aside the arrest.

The scheduling of the trial dates by the Court is pending rescheduling from 4 November 2024 to 8 November 2024 to date to be announced by the Court.

The solicitors acting for TSA Industries is of the view that TSA Industries has good chances of success of proving the claim at trial.
