A2) Audit Report

The auditor's report on the financial statements for the financial year ended 31 December 2012 was not qualified.

A3) Seasonal and Cyclical Nature of Group's Products and Operations

The prices for the Group's products are not within the total control of the Group but are determined by the global supply and demand situation for edible oils and it is somewhat related to the price of mineral oil.

Crop production is seasonal. Based on statistics, the Group's production of crude palm oil ("CPO") and palm kernel ("PK") gradually increases from March, peaking around July to September, and then declines from October to February. This pattern can be affected by severe global weather conditions such as El-Nino.

The prices obtainable for the Group's products as well as the volume of production, which is cyclical in nature, will determine the profits for the Group.

A4) Exceptional and Extraordinary Items

There were no exceptional or extraordinary items for the current period.

Notes to the Interim Financial Report

B1) Directors' Analysis of the Group's Performance for 9 Months Ended 30 September 2013

The Group's profit before tax dropped by 33.7% to MYR 222.6 million in the current period from MYR 335.8 million in the corresponding period in 2012 resulting from:

Plantations

This major segment of the Group's profit before tax declined by 29.7% to MYR 234.5 million in the current period from MYR 333.7 million in the corresponding period. The lower profit before tax was mainly due to lower production, higher production costs and lower selling prices of CPO and PK. The average selling prices of CPO and PK achieved for the period were as follows:

Countries	Products	September 2013 Current Period (MYR/MT)	September 2012 Corresponding Period (MYR/MT)
Malaysia	CPO	2,651	3,104
Indonesia	CPO	2,095	2,444
Average	CPO	2,547	2,994
Malaysia	PK	1,212	1,701
Indonesia	PK	868	1,139
Average	PK	1,159	1,627

The main difference in CPO and PK prices between Malaysia and Indonesia is due to the different duty structures of CPO/PK and the refined products in the two countries.

The Group's CPO and PK production dropped by 10.3% and 14.3% respectively in the current period from the corresponding period. The selling prices of CPO and PK declined by 14.9% and 28.7% respectively in the same period as a consequence of the fall in world vegetable oil prices. CPO and PK production costs increased by 15.2% and 4.6% in the current period from the corresponding period.

As CPO price was below the windfall gain tax threshold price of MYR 2,500/MT in the current period, no windfall tax was paid as compared to MYR 9.2 million incurred in the corresponding period.

Interest income for the Group recorded a 23.7% increase in the current period from the corresponding period due to higher cash balances.

Refinery

The profit before tax of the refinery increased by 21.4% in the current period from the corresponding period due to favourable hedging and trading positions in commodities.

Notes to the Interim Financial Report

B1) Directors' Analysis of the Group's Performance for 9 Months Ended 30 September 2013 - continued

Others

The IDR had weakened significantly by 12.7% against MYR since the beginning of the year. This was primarily due to the US Federal Reserve's indication that it would begin to taper the amount of monetary stimulus (quantitative easing). This would imply a rise in the US interest rates. Emerging economies saw an exodus of funds and Indonesia was one of the worst hit resulting in a sharp weakening of the Indonesian currency .

This has resulted in the holding companies' investments in Indonesia recording a whopping MYR 31.2 million unrealized foreign exchange loss from IDR loans extended to Indonesian subsidiaries in the current period as compared to MYR 25.8 million unrealized loss in the corresponding period.

B2) Comparison of Results with Preceding Quarter

Profit before tax decreased by 15.7% from MYR 75.6 million in the preceding quarter to MYR 63.7 million for the quarter under review. This was principally due to MYR 33.1 million unrealised foreign exchange loss incurred from the IDR loans extended by the holding companies to the Indonesia subsidiaries as compared to MYR 0.8 million gain in the preceding quarter due to the sharp deterioration of IDR against MYR in the current quarter. The 60.9% drop in profit before tax from the refinery unit from MYR 10.9 million in the preceding quarter to MYR 4.3 million in the current quarter due to a 38.9% decline in sales also contributed to the overall decline.

However, the declines as highlighted above were offset somewhat by the significant improvement from the plantation division. This division's profit before tax recorded a 44.8% jump from MYR 63.9 million in the preceding quarter to MYR 92.6 million in the current quarter. The higher profitability of this divison was due to higher production of CPO and PK by 22.5% and 19.9% and lower production costs of CPO and PK by 23.7% and 16.2% in the current quarter as compared to the preceding quarter.

Notes to the Interim Financial Report

B3) Prospects and Outlook

During the third quarter of 2013, palm oil prices ranged between MYR 2,200/MT and MYR 2,500/MT. However, as the Malaysian palm oil production in third was lower than expected combined with Malaysian exports surpassing expectations the September 2013 end stocks were pegged at 1.78 million MT against September 2012 ending stocks of 2.48 million MT. As a result of the significantly lower than expected third quarter ending stocks, prices started to re-test the upper part of the range of MYR 2,500/MT.

Due to weather concerns and some disruption of harvesting and transportation of crop to the mills during the month of October in primarily the major oil-palm growing states of Sabah, Sarawak and Johor, palm oil prices recently moved out of the abovementioned trading range and reached MYR 2,615/MT in October, the highest level seen for more than nine months.

The US soybean crop experienced late plantings during the second quarter due to wet weather. As a result, the market priced in a "late harvest risk premium" expecting lower yields due to the risk of night frost. However, the US harvest weather during September and October has been beneficial for the soybean crop and yields resulting in soybean oil prices decreasing significantly reducing the huge premium over palm oil.

The South American soybean crop is planted during the fourth quarter and recent beneficial rains in both Brazil and Argentina have improved planting conditions. As a result of better than expected weather conditions, the future crop outlook is looking good.

With the palm oil supply experiencing challenges versus expectations of abundant soybean oil supply the markets are double-edged. We expect the palm oil production to decline compared to last year, however, with soybean oil supply from first the US and then South America anticipated to be good, we do not foresee any dramatic price rallies.

The Group has embarked on a large replanting programme in Malaysia in 2013 in accordance with its replanting policy. This combined with a general downtrend of our Malaysian production has contributed to lower than anticipated production during the year. Shortage of guest workers, especially for harvesting operations, have compounded the fall in production. This fall is partially compensated by the production from our Indonesian estates as all areas have come into maturity. Nevertheless, it is anticipated that the Group's overall production in 2013 will be lower than in 2012.

During the third quarter of 2013, the Indonesian Rupiah depreciated approximately 10% against the Malaysian Ringgit which has had a significant negative impact on the Group's results in the form of unrealized foreign exchange loss as mentioned in Note B1) above.

Due to the above factors, the Board of Directors is of the opinion that the results for 2013 will be lower than in 2012.

B4) Profit Forecasts

The Group has not issued any profit forecasts for the period under review.

B12) Others

As the Group is also listed in NASDAQ OMX Copenhagen A/S (Nasdaq CPH) and to comply with the directive of the Danish Business Authority, the Directors have under Note 10 (a) of the Annual Report 2012 presented the financial effect on the financial statements of the Group had biological assets been measured at fair value in accordance with IAS 41 Agriculture.

The fair valuation of the biological assets is based on the discounted cash flow method with the assumptions of prices, yield, costs etc based on long term historical averages. The Directors have as at 30 September 2013 reassessed these assumptions and are of the opinion that these have not changed significantly and the fair value is therefore not materially different from the valuation made as at 31 December 2012.

The Directors will continue to review these key assumptions every quarter. However, the valuation will be updated at year end or earlier only if any of these assumptions change significantly, resulting in a material change to the valuation.

At the Extraordinary General Meeting held on 12 November 2013, the shareholders had approved the delisting of the Company from Nasdaq CPH subject to approval from Nasdaq CPH.
