18. COMMENTARY ON PROSPECTS

The Group expects the airport operations business segment to continue contributing positively to the consolidated revenue for 2009 financial year. The aeronautical revenue stream would be highly dependent on the passenger movements at the airports operated by the Group. The International Air Transport Association (IATA) has recently announced a revised forecast for global passenger movement to decline by 8% in 2009. However, initiatives have been taken by the Group to grow its non-aeronautical revenue via a retail optimization plan and the provision of more commercial spaces at the airports. In addition, the recent financial restructuring of the Group is expected to further strengthen the future performance of the Group.

With regards to the outbreak of the Influenza A (H1N1) virus, the Group has not seen a negative impact on the passenger movements in the first half of 2009. However, the impact going forward is still uncertain at this stage.
