14. Current year prospects

The Group continues to be significant macro-economic and geopolitical uncertainty in the global economy, aggravated by the Russia-Ukraine conflict. Persistent inflation and rising interest rates present challenges to the business.

These factors will continue to bear down on the tile industry and it will be even more challenging for the Company to maintain margins in the near future. Counter measures to address these challenges include enhancing the manufacturing efficiency and productivity, new products development and cost-control.

15. Profit forecast
