14. (A review of the performance of the company and its principal subsidiaries, setting out material factors affecting the earnings and/or revenue of the company and the group for the current quarter and financial year-to-date)

The Group recorded revenue of RM241.7 million and profit before tax of RM26.2 million respectively for the quarter. For the financial year-to-date under review, the Group recorded a revenue of RM855.6 million and profit before tax of RM115.5 million respectively.

The higher revenue was achieved on the back of an increase in average fare of 5.7%, from RM123 in the previous quarter to RM130 for the current quarter and a passenger load factor of 83% as compared to 80% in the immediate preceding quarter.

15. (An explanatory comment on any material change in the profit before taxation for the quarter reported on as compared with the immediate preceding quarter)

The Group achieved a profit before tax of RM26.2 million for the quarter under review. This was an increase of RM2.7 million compared to that of the immediately preceding quarter ended 31 March 2006. The Group however incurred higher finance costs and depreciation and amortisation charges for the period under review as AirAsia has taken delivery of 2 new A320-200. Up to 30 June 2006, the AirAsia Group has already taken delivery of 7 new A320-200.

Included in the Group's result for the current quarter was a loss of RM1.0 million, being the 49% share of losses of Thai AirAsia, a jointly-controlled entity. This is a decrease of RM3.0 million compared to the preceding quarter ended 31 March 2006 and was mainly due to higher staff and maintenance costs and unrealized losses in foreign exchange. Losses in the Group's associated company, PT Indonesia AirAsia, which are funded by the Group and are not included in the Group's results under the existing accounting policy, increased to RM8.9 million in the current quarter compared to RM8.8 million in the preceding quarter and amounted to RM22.8 million for the financial year under review.

UNAUDITED NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS – 30 JUNE 2006

16. (A commentary on the prospects, including the factors that are likely to influence the company's prospects for the remaining period to the end of the financial year or the next financial year if the reporting period is the last quarter)

The Group is facing a number of challenges including increased competitive pressures, lower yields due to our aggressive promotional fares and the unpredictability of fuel prices.

We will be adding significant capacity over the next twelve (12) months. The high cost of jet fuel therefore remains a concern. The Board does not anticipate fuel prices falling significantly and is of the view that they will remain at high levels in the short term. To mitigate this risk, the Company is actively pursuing to put into place a hedge of future fuel requirement.

In spite of short term challenges, the Directors remain positive on the long term business outlook of the Group that is geared for growth.

The Company has received approval from Ministry of Finance under Section 127 of Income Tax Act, 1967 for income tax exemption in the form of an Investment Allowance ('IA') of 60% on qualifying expenditure incurred within the period of 5 years commencing 01 July 2004 to 30 June 2009, to be set off against 70% of statutory income for each year of assessment. The IA incentive will contribute positively to AirAsia's future earnings. The current taxation charge is in respect of interest income, which is assessed separately.

UNAUDITED NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS - 30 JUNE 2006

In the preparation of the financial statements, the Company has complied in all material respects with Financial Reporting Standards ("FRS") except for FRS 112 ₂₀₀₄ on Income Taxes. The Directors are of the view that compliance with FRS 112 ₂₀₀₄ will not present a true and fair financial position and performance of the Company.

FRS 112 ₂₀₀₄ requires that a deferred tax liability be recognised for all taxable temporary differences. In addition, a deferred tax asset should be recognized for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilized. However, FRS 112 ₂₀₀₄ does not allow companies to recognize unutilised investment tax allowance as deductible temporary differences, even though such recognition is permissible under International Financial Reporting Standards ('IFRS').

Based on the confirmed number of new Airbus A320 aircraft ordered by the Company, agreed purchase price and a reasonable assumption of future profitability, it is projected that the Company will accumulate unutilised capital allowances of approximately RM8.2 billion by the end of the financial year ending 30 June 2011.

Over and above the unutilised capital allowances, the Company expects to have an increasing amount of untilised investment tax allowances granted by the Malaysian Government over the next few years as its aircraft acquisition program continues. Both the unutilized capital and investment tax allowances arising on the significant investment can be carried forward indefinitely. Accordingly, the Company does not expect to pay any tax in the foreseeable future.

Application of FRS 112 ₂₀₀₄ would require the Group and Company to record a charge of RM26.1 million in the income statement for the financial year ended 30 June 2006 and a deferred tax liability of RM39.7 million as at 30 June 2006, consequently resulting in a reduction in profit after taxation and earnings per share. In the light of both the capital and investment tax allowances available and the prevailing practice under IFRS, the Directors are of the view that compliance with FRS 112₂₀₀₄ for the financial year ended 30 June 2006 would distort the Company's earnings and does not present a true and fair view of the Company's financial performance and cash flows under FRS 101₂₀₀₄ and the Malaysian Companies' Act 1965. Adoption of this approach has resulted in the Group recording a deferred tax credit in the income statement of RM13.6 million, representing the write back of the opening deferred tax liability of RM13.6 million.

Accordingly, the Group is reporting a nil deferred tax balance as at 30 June 2006 (2005:RM13.6 million deferred tax liability position).

UNAUDITED NOTES TO THE ACCOUNTS – 30 JUNE 2006

Fair value of derivative financial instruments is the present value of their future cash flow and is derived at mainly based on valuation carried out by the Company's bankers.

(i) Forward foreign exchange contracts

Forward foreign exchange contracts protect the Group from movements in exchange rates by establishing the rate at which a foreign currency asset or liability will be settled. Exchange gains and losses arising on contracts entered into as hedges of anticipated future transactions are deferred until the date of such transaction, at which time they are included in the measurement of such transactions.

As at 24 August 2006, the contracts amount of foreign exchange contracts that were entered into as hedges were USD29.8 million (RM110.0 million). These amounts represent the future cash flows under forward foreign exchange contracts to purchase the foreign currency. The settlement periods of these contracts range between 1 and 7 months.

(ii) Interest rate swap

The Company entered into a capped interest rate swap to hedge against fluctuations in the US-LIBOR on its USD2.0 billion term loan on its aircraft financing from 05 Dec 2005 to 01 Feb 2009. The effect of this transaction obliges it to pay fixed interest rate of between 4.71% and 4.85% instead of being subjected to the floating US LIBOR for the entire amount.

(iii) Fuel swap

As at 24 August 2006, the Group and Company had entered into options contracts from 01 July 2006 to 30 June 2009 as part of the Group's overall hedging strategy totaling 10,656,000 barrels. These arrangements are to be settled in US Dollars

Diluted earnings per share

For the diluted earnings per share calculation, the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue is adjusted to assume conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares. The Group's dilutive potential ordinary shares are in respect of options over shares granted to employees.

In respect of options over shares granted to employees, a calculation is done to determine the number of ordinary shares that could have been acquired at fair value (determined as the average share price of the Company's shares) based on the monetary value of the subscription rights attached to outstanding options over shares. The number of ordinary shares calculated is compared with the number of shares that would have been issued assuming the exercise of the options over shares. The difference is added to the denominator as an issue of ordinary shares for no consideration. This calculation serves to determine the "bonus" element in the ordinary shares outstanding for the purpose of computing the dilution. No adjustment is made to net profit for the period for the options over shares calculation.
